

Hannah Guthrie - Assistant Pro

Hannah has had a lifelong passion for squash, a sport that has been a central part of her family and upbringing. She began competing at a young age, advancing through provincial tournaments to the international stage, where she participated in prestigious events including the Canadian, U.S., Dutch, and British Junior Opens. Following her junior career, Hannah continued her success professionally, reaching the Top 200 on the PSA Tour and earning a U23 National Championship title.

In addition to her accomplishments as a player, Hannah is deeply committed to coaching and program development. She began coaching at her local club as a junior and later helped lead all junior programming alongside her family. Most recently, she served as the assistant men's and women's squash coach at St. Lawrence University. During her tenure, the women's team captured both the 2025 Liberty League Championship and the 2026 Divisional National Championship.

Hannah is passionate about helping athletes grow into confident competitors and takes pride in fostering positive, supportive team environments.
